

Sirs,

I understand that there is a challenge to New Jersey's "Do Not Call" legislation.

I strongly urge you to leave the provisions of this law intact. I was getting up to ten junk calls per day and that has dropped to near zero. My blood pressure is down and my quality of life is vastly improved.

Now if only New Jersey lawmakers could do the same thing for spam...